

O Great Creator, Wise and Good

O great Creator, wise and good,
To You our voices raise;
Nature in all its beauty grand,
Invites us to Your praise.

Your glory shines in every star,
Piercing the darkest night;
And gilds the dawning of each day,
With blessed rays of light.

The mountains high, the lowly fields,
Speak words of wise design;
The towering trees, their pleasant shade,
Proclaims Your power divine.

This book of all Your wondrous ways,
Reveals Your gracious love;
So may our hearts be lifted up,
To Your throne above.
